

13 may 1981

CITY CHILD

City child you're a citizen now
We can guarantee your citizen rights
Give me your name and information we need
Take this number you're now in a file

You stay in a building at the seventh floor
In the same room than thousand of yours
You are protected by the law
Even insured for the third world war

Reasonable man
I can't understand your aim

I want to know what's the color sky for you
I want to know what is happiness for you
I want to know how far you can dream
I want to know if you realize

City lights plays the part of the stars
You're in a crowd but forever alone
Morning ends and the silence roars
World's taking place on your TV screen

All the day between four walls
Waiting for long for someone to love
You may shoot yourself you're not the own
Able to knock who can buy a home

Reasonable man
I can understand your pain

You play a part in a tragedy, you know
It's just a fruit of society, you know
You're not to blame, we have to change the world for sake
Wonder about what I've said

City child you're a citizen now
We can guaranty you're citizen rights
"Leave me alone, I just want to love
I've been waiting for long for someone to love "