

DARK SIDE OF MY STORY

Please keep away from the doors
They're closing one by one
Won't open any more

The cathedral has fallen
But there're others to be done
But illusions no more

In some other days
And other ways
Throw all my problems
Far away
I'll hear my voice
I'll feel my touch
I'll give my soul
To leave the dark side of my story

I'm making sad sad movies
Everytime I close my eyes
Don't turn off the lights

When I'm alone all these bad memories
Goes all through my mind
Never ending a night

But these other days
And other ways
Over the edge
I'll surely stay
Hearing my voice
Feeling my touch
And giving my soul
To leave the dark side of my story

Solo

Please keep away from the doors
They're closing one by one
Won't open any more

The cathedral has fallen
But there're others to be done
But illusions no more

Could you be there
Would you be there now
I won't be out of my mind

Could you be there
Would you be there now
I won't be out of my way

And I'm thinking a while for an answer
I'm not fading away
Just thinking a while for an answer
I'm not fading away
I'm just leaving the dark side of my story
