

I'LL BE THERE

If the time has come to feel yourself once again
I'll be there
I'll be there
For a while
For the hours we'll share, for our memory's sake
For the touch of your hands, for your eyes, for your smile
For the words you'll say
I'll be there

If the sun is down and life so noisy once again
I'll be there
I'll be there
For a while
To give you a smile, hold you when you cry
Never feel alone in the dark, never fall, never lost
I'm still there

Won't you care about our love

I wish I'm turning you on, only singing a song
Turn me on, oh baby turn me on

And if you crazy feel love is really waiting for you
I'll be there
Just be there
All the time, living for our dreams
Believe all what we are, for giving love a chance
Reaching our aims, saving our souls
