

I MUST BE SOMEWHERE

I feel so far away, from all, from now
I really have to close my eyes
I've tried so many times; they're all, in a crowd
I don't think I can wear their size
I feel so close to you, I'm wondering how
I'm trying to find the reason why

I want to love you as if I was a child
Starting all again, if you need me I want to try
I want to sing for you, try to make you fly
No destination, just fly

I feel so far away, from all, from now
I really have to change my mind
I've tried so many times, they're all, in a crowd
I want to try another size
I feel so close to you, I'm wondering how
You'll understand the reason why

I want to love you as if I was a child
Starting all again, if you need me I want to try
I want to sing for you, try to make you fly
No destination, just fly

Maybe you don't care
My story started, without you in there
Maybe you're nowhere
My story will end, I must be somewhere
I must be somewhere
