MAN OF NOWHERE

Man of nowhere where do you go?
Man of nowhere how do you feel?
You have to fight with all the problems that you have
Man of nowhere turn your head
You have to do the best you can

Keep away you're a mystery
You can trust every eyes
You live in a world of fantasy
Always think you're the best
You just believe you are a king

Bad looser, bad player, bad temper, you're a liar
Be a spider, you'll never be more

Bad lover, bad singer, feel yourself
It's the only way to be called somewhere

Man of nowhere you can't hear
Man of nowhere you are wrong
You'll never for ever be understood, what a waste
Man of nowhere be yourself
You have to do the best you can

You created your loneliness
Mystery on your case
You live a world of fantasy
You have to face the reality, just be wake, you are

Bad looser, bad player, bad temper, you're a liar
Be a spider, you'll never be more

Bad lover, bad singer, feel yourself
It's the only way to be called somewhere

Bad lover, bad player, seasons change
Why don't you try to do the same

Man of nowhere where do you go?
Man of nowhere turn your head
You have to do the best you can
