

WHY ?

Lonely people I have seen
Running away 'cause they're scared
To go home , home

Lonely people came to me
Just to know where to be free
Without family, family

When would they be allowed
To only fly through the clouds
To reach the blue sky
To reach the blue sky

They just need a peace of love
A little bit of your attention
For their lonely hearts
For their lonely hearts

Tell me why the world is wild
They don't seem to know what's right
They even don't know how to love their child

I'd like them to tell me why
All the fruits of their whole life
Are just left there, as something to buy
Something to buy

Perhaps I'm too sensible
But I find incredible
To be so fool, so fool

How can't you see their tears
How can you turn your head
To so lonely eyes, so lonely eyes

Now mother listen to me
The day will come when you will hear
I'm leaving now
I'm reaching out
I've found new eyes

You father with angry eyes
Your dirty hands will close the door
For ever more, for ever more

Lovers have to be awake
Revolution's not so late
Children will soon the heirs of parent's race

Even if you laugh to me
Love is born to keep alive
It's only, question of time
Question of time

No more empty eyes
No more sacrifice
Reach the paradise
Close the door of ice

You're so beautiful
So wonderful
So sensible

How to be so fool
So criminal
So sinical
So sinical

What's your aim to do that

Why ?
